"THERE IS A BIG COMPETITION FOR PLACES NOW WHICH IS WHAT WE WANT AND EVERY PLAYER KNOWS THEY HAVE TO BE AT THEIR BEST TO KEEP THEIR PLACE IN THE TEAM"

Good afternoon and welcome back to Wembley.

I was pleased with the manner of the performance here on Wednesday evening as we booked our place in the next round of the FA Cup with a victory over Newport County.

They caused us problems in the first match in Wales, though back at Wembley we were dominant and got the result we deserved.

We wish Newport well for the rest of their season and we can now look forward to a trip to Rochdale next weekend. We must learn lessons from the Newport tie as we head into that game.

It was also pleasing to welcome Danny Rose, Toby Alderweireld and Harry Winks back from injury on Wednesday. They have been missing for a while for us and it has been good to have a full squad available again.

There is big competition for places now which is what we want and every player knows they have to be at their best to keep their place in the team.

Congratulations to Erik Lamela who was back on the scoresheet for the first time since fighting back from his long injury absence.

Today we welcome Arsenal and their manager Arsene Wenger.

The North London derby is always a special game and with so many of you here at the stadium, I know we can count on you to create a big atmosphere to help us.

We have closed the gap on the teams above us recently and we need to keep up our momentum in order to overtake them.

Enjoy the match.

Gunners next for Under-18s

Our youngsters have been drawn at home to Arsenal in the semi-finals of the Under-18 Premier League Cup.

The tie will be held at Hotspur Way on Saturday, February 17, kick-off 11am.

We made it through to the last four after a fantastic 4-0 home win over Liverpool last month, while the Gunners beat Norwich City on penalties following a 4-4 draw after extra time at their London Colney training base.

Meanwhile, today's Under-18 Premier League trip to Aston Villa which was postponed, will now take place on Saturday, March 24, kick-off 12pm at Bodymoor Heath.

VICTOR PROVES THEM WRONG!

Victor Wanyama didn't give up - and reaped the rewards in spectacular fashion at Liverpool last Sunday.

In his post-match interview at Anfield, Harry Kane pointed out that the players had pulled Victor's leg recently after a couple of 'wayward' shots!

"He's had a few shots in recent games and they've ended up near the corner flag so we told him not to shoot," said Harry.

How times quickly change in football.

Less than a minute after entering the fray and with us pushing for an equaliser, Victor hammered home a goal that will go down in Spurs folklore, a piledriver that flew like an arrow into the top corner in front of the Kop.

"He's proved us wrong!" said Harry afterwards. "Fair play to him, he stuck it to us today. He's produced one of the best strikes I've seen. I probably haven't scored a better one than that to be fair.

Victor added: "I've had a couple of shots when I've come on and the lads haven't been happy with me and said I should stop shooting. I told them that I will continue shooting and one day, one will end up in the back of the net.

"That day was today. I'm really glad. You can shoot like that 100 times and maybe never score once, so I'm happy to score this time and help the team."

CLUB CELEBRATES CHARITY PARTNERSHIP

At today's north London derby, we will celebrate our Official Charity Partnership with Noah's Ark Children's Hospice.

Noah's Ark currently provides a 'Hospice at Home' service across north London supporting children and young people with life-limiting or life-threatening conditions and their families. Through their 'Building The Ark' campaign, the charity is raising funds to construct North and Central London's only children's hospice building – The Ark.

Volunteers will be holding a collection around Wembley Stadium and Noah's Ark Chief Executive, Ru Watkins, Specialist Carer Luke Dart and Club Ambassador Gary Mabbutt will be speaking at half-time about the work the charity does.

Pre-match, our players will warm-up in special edition t-shirts while club mascots Chirpy and Lily will be joined on the pitch by Noah's Ark mascots, Henry and Harriet.

Our two-year partnership with Noah's Ark sees us help raise awareness of the work of the charity and drive the recruitment of volunteers from our local community.

Among those taking part in today's collection will be volunteers from our local community recruited by the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation as part of its work to equip young people with the skills needed for employment.

To donate £10 text NOAH09 £10 to 70070. We ask that fans give generously to a fantastic cause.

Friends reunited for Lucas

Lucas Moura was quickly greeted by a familiar face on his first day at Hotspur Way.

Our new signing from PSG walked through the doors at our Training Centre and was delighted to rekindle his friendship with his former team-mate, Serge Aurier, who made the same switch as the Brazilian midfielder last August.

And Serge confirmed that the new member of Mauricio Pochettino's squad is a great addition to the set-up.

"I am happy for him and for our team because I've played with Lucas before, he is a real friend, a good guy, he likes football and he likes the big moments on the pitch," said the Ivory Coast international.

"At PSG he was an important player in a big team. It's good that he's come here because his age is similar to everyone else in the squad. He's a young player at 25 but he has big experience. For the team it's great because he has the right mentality for Tottenham, he has big qualities and with me he has a good relationship for now and in future.

"I told him to come here because, for me, coming to England and to Tottenham is good for your progression.

"In Paris, I won many trophies with Lucas and it was good because I played on the right and he played in front of me," explained the full-back.

"He's a quick player, good at dribbling with good energy. He's a new option for the team because we have players that are fast – Sonny, Dele, Harry – and Lucas is similar. He's very quick and he scores good goals.

"He's quiet but he likes to joke and laugh," added Serge. "He laughs with me every time I see him. He's very, very funny. He is a different character to me but we have a good understanding."

Action from Arsenal's game against Chelsea at White Hart Lane in March, 1940

KEEP CALM AND CARRY ON

Andy Greeves tells a story from our vast history that has a link to our matchday opponents. This afternoon, he looks at our use of Arsenal's former Highbury stadium and the Gunners' matches at White Hart Lane during the World Wars.

Having suffered relegation to the Second Division at the end of the 1912-13 season, and with their finances in a precarious state, Woolwich Arsenal sought to relocate from their Manor Ground home in Plumstead, South London, in an attempt to increase club revenues.

Then-Gunners chairman Henry Norris looked at open spaces in Battersea and Harringay as potential sites for Arsenal's new ground. He also explored the possibility of merging with Fulham to form a side that would play at Craven Cottage - but such plans were scuppered by the Football League. Instead, Norris would agree to the 21-year lease of St John's College of Divinity's six-acre sports ground in Highbury, N5 at a cost of £20,000.

Having relocated north of the River Thames and less than five miles from our White Hart Lane home, so a local rivalry between ourselves and Arsenal was born.

'Arsenal Stadium' - which became more universally known as Highbury - was hurriedly built on the college site during the summer of 1913. The main stand and the three accompanying 'banks' were designed by renowned architect Archibald Leitch, who also worked extensively on the development of White Hart Lane over the years. Despite not being fully complete, Highbury hosted its first match against Leicester Fosse on September 6 that year.

Our first meeting after the Gunners' relocation came in a War Relief Fund match at White Hart Lane on August 22, 1914, while we travelled to Highbury for the first time for a Football Combination League match on September 4, 1915.

Despite Great Britain declaring war on Germany on August 4, 1914, the Football League and FA Cup competitions continued for another season in 1914-15. Thereafter, ourselves and Arsenal competed in the London Football Combination for the remaining years of the conflict.

Our home matches during the inaugural Combination season in 1915-16 were staged at White Hart Lane, as was our opening game of the 1916-17 campaign against Chelsea. But with our ground requisitioned for military drill practice and as a workshop for manufacturing gas masks in September, 1916, we would spend the next three seasons playing our 'home' matches away from N17. It was Highbury that would come to host the majority of these games.

We played our first 'home' fixture away from the Lane since 1899 on September 16, 1916, against Luton Town at Highbury, going down to a 3-2 defeat in front of a crowd of 6,000. In all, we played 11 home Combination matches in N5 that season, including a 4-1 victory over Arsenal on December 2, 1916, and a 10-0 thrashing of Portsmouth on March 31, 1917. We also used Clapton Orient's Millfields Road ground in Homerton as a home venue during World War I, with nine matches staged there.

> "In all, Arsenal played 133 times in N17 during World War II, with their first home fixture on October 21, 1939"

We staged 13 further home Combination matches at Highbury in 1917-18 and five at Millfield Road with our away game against Arsenal on November 17, 1917, moved from N5 to Homerton. West Ham United's Upton Park became our third temporary home during the war on May 4, 1918, staging our final match of that season against Fulham.

Our last season at Highbury in 1918-19 season saw us play seven Combination matches there as well as a Victory Cup tie against West Ham on March 25, 1919. The following month, we played our last home game at Highbury against Queens Park Rangers on April 12. Our last match at Millfield Road was a 2-2 draw with Millwall six days later while Chelsea's Stamford Bridge hosted our last-ever game in wartime exile – a 2-0 Victory Cup semi-final defeat to Fulham.

The outbreak of World War II in 1939 saw Arsenal Stadium closed as a sporting venue and converted into an Air Raid Precautions (ARP) centre. We repaid the favour the Gunners had afforded us during the previous conflict by inviting them to stage their home games at the Lane through until 1946.

In all, Arsenal played 133 times in N17 during World War II, with the first of their 'home' fixtures coming on October 21, 1939, when they beat Charlton Athletic 8-4 in a Football League South 'A' Division game in front of a crowd of 8,934. Our players experienced the unusual scenario of being the 'away' team in the North London derby of November 18, 1939, despite the match being staged at White Hart Lane! We played a total of 10 matches against the Gunners as the 'away' side at Lane during the war.

Both ourselves and the Gunners experienced matches at our former stadium being halted and abandoned during the 1940-41 season, with an extensive number of air-raids in London at that time. Indeed, our first North London derby that campaign on October 12, 1940, was called off after 47 minutes with Arsenal leading 3-2 at the time.

During World War II, the Gunners were winners of the Football League South in 1942-43, finishing five points above us in second place. The following season saw us claim the title as we won 19 and lost just three of our 30 league fixtures while we topped the division once again in 1944-45.

Despite war in Europe ending on May 8, 1945, the full Football League programme did not return until the 1946-47 season. Arsenal remained based in N17 for the 1945-46 Football

Archibald Leitch designed 'Arsenal Stadium' which soon became better known as Highbury

League South campaign. Our home match with the Gunners on February 16, 1946, drew our biggest crowd of the season, as 44,510 spectators were on hand to see our 2-0 victory. Just a week earlier, our 'away' fixture against our North London rivals drew a White Hart Lane attendance of 38,927 while Arsenal's prestigious friendly with Dynamo Moscow back on November 21, 1945, brought a crowd of 54,640 to the same venue.

The FA Cup resumed during the 1946-47 season, with all matches from the first round proper up to and including the sixth round played over two legs for the first and only time in the competition's history. Both ourselves and Arsenal were eliminated in the third round.

The Gunners' 1-0 victory over West Ham United at White Hart Lane on January 9, 1946, was in vain as they had lost 6-0 to the Hammers in the first leg of the tie just four days earlier! On May 4, 1946, Arsenal played their last-ever 'home' match at the Lane - also against West Ham - ahead of the club's move back to Highbury.

As both clubs proved during the World Wars, in times of adversity even the greatest of sporting rivals can extend out the hand of friendship to one another.

Arsenal face Charlton Athletic at White Hart Lane in 1940

OLYMPIC SPIRIT

Both White Hart Lane and Highbury were both used as venues for the football tournament as London staged the 1948 Olympic Games.

Eventual gold medallists Sweden began their campaign with a 3-0 victory over Austria at the Lane on August 2, 1948, featuring their famous 'Gre-No-Li' frontline of Gunnar Gren, Gunnar Nordahl and Nils Liedholm. Nordahl scored twice in the opening 10 minutes of the match in N17, watched by a crowd of 8,514 while Kjell Rosen added a third goal in the second half.

Highbury staged Great Britain's 4-3 first round victory over the Netherlands on July 31, 1948, which required a period of extra-time to settle the result. There was another goal-fest in N5 on August 5, 1948, as Denmark romped to a 5-3 quarter final win over Italy.

Lucas Moura has been involved in some big games throughout his career – but he's already well aware that the magnitude and scale of this afternoon's north London derby will be right up there with the best of them.

And should he get the opportunity to make his Spurs debut here at Wembley Stadium today, he says he can't wait to show our supporters and the people who brought him to the club just what he is capable of.

The Brazilian international signed for us on the last day of the January transfer window from Paris St Germain, swapping the French capital for London with our progression over the last few years one of the major determining factors in his decision.

He's barely had a chance to settle into his new surroundings but could be about to make his first appearance in our colours in the biggest league game in our fixture calendar.

But Lucas is no stranger to the big occasion, having played in numerous French 'classico' matches for PSG against Marseille, Lyon and Monaco while during his time in Brazil with Sao Paulo, local derby games against the likes of Palmeiras, Corinthians and Santos were a regular feature of his season. Of course, he's also played Champions League and Copa Sudamericana football with his two previous clubs, as well as winning 30 caps for Brazil.

Today's game will certainly be a new experience for him though. The first-ever north London derby league clash to be staged at Wembley could be played out in front of a record attendance for English football and promises to be a mouth-watering occasion. There's also the highly significant matter of three very important points to play for, as well as the added bonus of local bragging rights for the winners. It's fair to say, Lucas can't wait.

"I know that this game against Arsenal is always a big game, a very important game for Spurs, and one that all the players like to play in, so I'm really looking forward to it," explained the attacking midfielder.

"My team-mates have told me how special this match is, how much it means to everyone to try to win it and I'm excited to hopefully be a part of this game. I'm sure the stadium will be incredible and the atmosphere will be special. It would be the best game to play my first Spurs match.

"I have played in big games like this before but this one will be different. Wembley is a famous stadium, English football and the fans are very different and I am looking forward to seeing it all today."

Should he feature this afternoon, it won't be the first time Lucas has played against Arsenal. Just last season his PSG side were drawn in the same Champions League group as the Gunners and, although he missed the first match in Paris, Lucas started in the return at the Emirates.

He produced a man of the match performance as the sides drew 2-2, almost scoring a stunning free-kick which crashed against the crossbar at 1-1 and, after Arsenal went 2-1 up, his header flicked off Alex Iwobi to give the French side a point.

"I remember the match very well, it was an important one for us to get through to the next stage and we played a good game," recalled the Sao Paulo-born player, who will wear the number 27 shirt for us. "It was a big Champions League match and I almost scored…I'm excited to hopefully play against Arsenal again."

Still only 25, Lucas has packed plenty into his short career already, including four-successive Ligue 1 titles after joining PSG from Sao Paulo in January, 2013. He scored 46 goals and claimed another 50 assists in 229 games for the French giants, but felt the time was right for a change of scenery and signed a contract with us until 2023.

"I'm so, so happy," he said. "It's a new chapter in my life, a new challenge for me. I've joined a big club with big players and I look forward to playing and helping the team.

"I will give my best for this club. I think we have a lot of quality and I think we can win big things."

It's fair to say Lucas has been blown away by our training facilities at Hotspur Way and our world-class new stadium that is due to open later this year.

"It's amazing, I've never seen a training centre like this. The new stadium as well - I'm so excited. Everything is perfect. I'm sure we will do big things together.

"Here, it's a new challenge and as I said, a new chapter in my life. I will have the opportunity to play, to show my talent and my quality and it's also a big club with a lot of fans and the history of Spurs is also very interesting. It's a pleasure for me to play for Tottenham."

On the international stage, Lucas earned his first Brazilian cap in 2011, won the FIFA Confederations Cup two years later and a silver medal at the London 2012 Olympics, when he briefly featured in the gold medal match here at Wembley Stadium.

Earlier in the tournament he played the full game against New Zealand at Newcastle's St James Park, playing alongside our former midfielder Sandro, as Brazil won 3-0, and had substitute appearances in wins against Belarus and Honduras.

In the Wembley final against Mexico, he

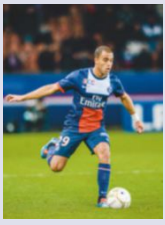
CAREER SO FAR

YOUNG TALENT

Born in Sao Paulo in August, 1992, he played for local youth teams Juventus SP, Corinthians and Sao Paulo as a youngster, before eventually signing for the latter professionally.

BREAKING THROUGH

Made his Sao Paulo debut in 2010 and went on to feature 86 times for the club, helping them lift the Copa Sudamericana in 2012 with a goal in the second leg of the final against Club Atletico Tigre of Argentina.



PARIS MATCH

Became PSG's most expensive signing when he joined in January, 2013, making his debut that month against AC Ajaccio. Ended up winning four league titles and seven domestic cups in France.

"I'VE BEEN HERE JUST OVER ONE WEEK NOW AND ALREADY FEEL SO HAPPY. THE PLAYERS HAVE BEEN AMAZING WITH ME"

replaced then-Manchester United full-back Rafael in the 85th-minute, with his side 2-0 down. Hulk's stoppage time goal was mere consolation as Mexico held on for the gold medal.

As Lucas trudged off the pitch at England's national stadium on that August afternoon, he could never have imagined that five-and-a-half years later, he would be walking out in front of over 80,000 supporters holding a Spurs scarf – as he did at half-time during our game against United last Wednesday - and with a whole new adventure ahead of him.

"That reception was special, it was a really big moment for me and I felt so welcomed by the Spurs fans," revealed Lucas. "I played here in the Olympic Games but it was nothing like that!

"I've been here just over one week now and already feel so happy. The players have been amazing with me and training this week has been hard but really good. I'm sure I am going to improve my game here and can't wait to help them team."

NEW SURROUNDINGS
Opted for a change last month when he swapped Paris for London, signing with us until 2023 and will wear the number 27 shirt this season.

SAMBA STAR
His first Brazil cap came against Scotland in March, 2011, and has since played 35 times for his country, scoring four goals. Won a silver medal at the London 2012 Olympics.

FIFA WORLD CUP RUSSIA 2018

ROAD TO RUSSIA

While there's still a lot to focus on at club level, it's 2018 and that means the countdown to this summer's World Cup in Russia is on! Ahead of the showpiece tournament, BILLY SHAW chats to members of our current squad who have helped their respective nations qualify over the last two years to find out about their memories of past World Cups and their predictions for 2018. The series continues today with France goalkeeper and captain, HUGO LLORIS

What was the first World Cup you can remember watching?
The 1994 World Cup in the USA. France were not involved in that competition but I have some images in my mind about some of the games like the final between Brazil and Italy, which Brazil won on penalties after a 0-0 draw.

Who were the stars that year?
Romario and Bebeto were some of the stars from Brazil and Diego Maradona was still there for Argentina, but he only played a couple of games before being sent home. Also I remember Hristo Stoichkov, who scored a lot of goals for Bulgaria. They got to the semi-finals and ended up finishing fourth.

France brilliantly beat Brazil to win the 1998 World Cup

Have you ever been to a World Cup match as a supporter?
No, never, not even when the World Cup was held in France in 1998. I just watched it on TV.

If there was one World Cup game in history that you could have gone to, which one would it be and why?
Brazil v France, the final in 1998, when the French team won 3-0 in the Stade de France. I was on holiday in the south of France with my grandparents at the time so I watched it from there on TV.

What are the best memories you have of your own country at the World Cup?
In France, if you talk about the World Cup, the first thing that comes to mind is the final from 1998 when the team won the trophy at home, so it has to be that moment.

NFL | TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR | Premier League

What is the best match you've ever seen at the finals?
For me, as a French person, it would be Brazil against France in the quarter-finals of the 2006 World Cup in Germany because Zinedine Zidane was just unbelievable. The context was that it was his last competition as he'd announced before the World Cup that he would retire afterwards, so every game was like his last game. Against Spain in the last 16, there was a lot of pressure but France won, then against Brazil, a lot of pressure again, but Zidane was always top class and in this game he was just amazing from the first second until the last.

And the best goal?
One from before I was born that I've since seen on television – Maradona against England in 1986 when he took the ball from inside his own half and drove forward with it, taking it around so many players and then scoring from the angle. It was in the same match as the 'Hand of God' goal, just a few minutes later. Argentina won 2-1 and went on to win the whole tournament.

What is the most unusual kit you've seen at the tournament?
I still remember from the 1994 World Cup that a few teams including the Republic of Ireland had an unusual goalkeeper kit with a lot of squares in a grid pattern. There were red squares all down the middle and yellow squares on the arms, all with a black background. This kit sticks in my mind.

Who do you think will make an impact at this year's World Cup?
I want France to win, of course, but always the host country seems to do well so I'll pick Russia to make an impact in the summer.

Pat Bonner's unusual goalkeeping kit from the 1994 tournament

What's being said

Julien Laurens, journalist for French newspaper Le Parisien

"Hugo has been a key part of what France have done in the last seven years since 2010, where we had a disaster at that World Cup – he's been the one leading the rebuilding. He's a huge asset on the pitch as one of the best goalkeepers in the world but also off the pitch, everything he does in terms of welcoming the new, younger generation of players is fantastic. He's the link between the manager and the rest of the squad, he links the generations so he's just a wonderful character to have. He's not the most vocal but when he talks, everybody listens and respects everything he says. He had a great career in France before he went to the Premier League, he was the best keeper we had in Ligue 1 when he was at Lyon, and then everything he's done since has increased the respect that people have for him. I know he was very disappointed by losing the final at the Euros in 2016 but I think he's got his eyes on a much bigger prize this summer."

REMEMBER WHEN...

...we travelled to Stamford Bridge for a Division One match on this day in 1990? We crossed London with a good recent record at Chelsea's ground, having won two, drawn two and lost just once on our previous five games there. And we continued that run with a 2-1 win – so we could never have imagined that we'd then go 28 years without another victory at the Bridge! We'd endured a difficult festive period in 1989-90, beating Millwall at home on Boxing Day but not winning again until February 4, when a Gary Lineker hat-trick saw us beat Norwich City 4-0. The trip to Chelsea was up next and we went in front thanks to a David Howells header, before John Bumstead levelled for the Blues on the hour. But we weren't to be denied, Lineker with a late winner to steal the points.

Gary Lineker

ON THIS DAY JANUARY 10

2001
MANCHESTER CITY 0-1 SPURS

Goals were a rarity in the run-up to our visit to Manchester City on this day in 2001. We'd had four successive goalless draws against Everton, Southampton, West Ham and Charlton and this game looked to be heading the same way until Sergei Rebrov popped up to score an 89th-minute winner!

1982
SPURS 1-0 WEST BROMWICH ALBION

Having held West Brom to a goalless draw at the Hawthorns in the League Cup semi-final, first leg, we reconvened at the Lane on this day 36 years ago confident of reaching the final. A Micky Hazard goal ensured just that, although we lost 3-1 to Liverpool in the final.

1962
SPURS 4-2 NOTTINGHAM FOREST

We were four league games without a win at the start of 1962 when Nottingham Forest arrived in N17 on this day in 1962. But a solid performance got us back on track as we were looking to defend our league title, goals from Cliff Jones (2), Bobby Smith and Terry Medwin sealing the points.

MANAGER:

ARSENE WENGER

English football's longest serving manager, Arsene Wenger was appointed Arsenal boss in October 1996 and on New Year's Day surpassed Sir Alex Ferguson's Premier League record when he took charge of his 811th PL game. Three of his record seven FA Cup successes have come at Wembley, most recently against Chelsea last season, and the Arsenal boss will return here later this month for the Carabao Cup final against Manchester City.

FORM GUIDE:

After finishing outside the top four last season for the first time since 1995-96, Arsenal are again facing a tough task to qualify for the Champions League with seven Premier League defeats having already been suffered so far. The Gunners have earned a place in the Carabao Cup final and made progress to the last 32 in the Europa League, but there will be no Wembley return in the FA Cup this season following Arsene Wenger's first ever third round defeat at Nottingham Forest.

DAVID OSPINA

POSITION: GOALKEEPER
DATE OF BIRTH: 31.08.88
A 2014 World Cup quarter-finalist with Colombia, Ospina remains first choice for his country and has now appeared 81 times for a national team that also features his brother-in-law, James Rodriguez. He signed for Arsenal in 2014 after a six-season stint with Nice and although yet to play in the Premier League in 2017/18 he has appeared in the Carabao Cup, FA Cup and Europa League.

33

PETR CECH

POSITION: GOALKEEPER
DATE OF BIRTH: 20.05.82
At the age of 35 Cech is still going strong and earlier this season made his 100th appearance for Arsenal, taking his tally of games in English football to over 600. The former Czech international holds the records for the most Premier League clean sheets (158), most clean sheets for Chelsea (220) and has won the Premier League Golden Glove four times, a record he shares with Joe Hart.

PER MERTESACKER

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 29.09.84
Club captain Mertesacker was a regular at the heart of Arsene Wenger's defence for four-and-a-half years until an injury-ravaged 2016-17 meant his only start came in the FA Cup final against Chelsea at Wembley. The German 2014 World Cup winner, who will retire in May before taking up a new role as Arsenal Academy manager, scored the winning goal against England here in 2013.

MR CONSISTENT

Solid defender Hector Bellerin has played all 2,340 minutes of the Premier League so far this term.

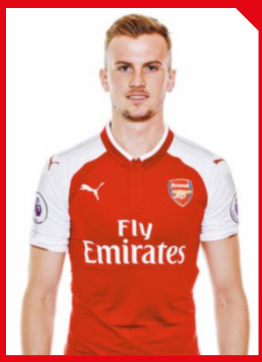
6 LAURENT KOSCIELNY

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 10.09.85
French international defender Koscielny made his 300th appearance for the Gunners during the North London derby at The Emirates in November and is now rivalling Aaron Ramsey as the current leading Arsenal appearance maker following Theo Walcott's departure. Signed from Lorient in 2010, vice-skipper Koscielny missed the 2017 FA Cup final at Wembley through suspension.

16 ROB HOLDING



POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 20.09.95
Holding came to Arsenal's attention while playing for Bolton Wanderers in 2015-16 and after being named as the Trotters' Player of the Year he completed a move to The Emirates, finishing his debut season as an FA Cup winner. An England Under-21 international who was part of Gareth Southgate's 2016 Toulon Tournament winning side, he netted his first Gunners goal in September.

20 SHKODRAN MUSTAFI

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 17.04.92
Mustafi was just 17 when he left Hamburg's Academy to join Everton in 2009 but made only one first-team appearance for the Toffeemen before signing for Sampdoria in 2012. Two years later he was a World Cup winner with Germany and a Valencia player with his stay in Spain lasting for two seasons before a move to Arsenal followed in 2016. He's been capped 20 times by Germany.

18 NACHO MONREAL

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 26.02.86
Utilised at both left-back and in central defence by Arsene Wenger, Monreal is now in his sixth season as an Arsenal player having arrived in North London from Malaga in January 2013. A Wembley goalscorer in the 2017 FA Cup semi-final against Manchester City, Pamplona-born Monreal has been capped 21 times by Spain and began his career with Osasuna.

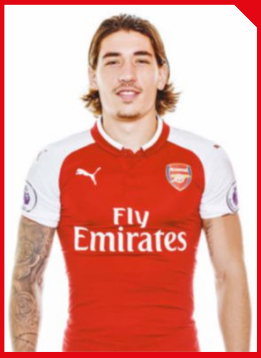
24 HECTOR BELLERIN



POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 19.03.95
Bellerin began his football education with Barcelona's famous La Masia Academy but opted to link up with Arsenal as a teenager in 2001, signing a professional contract in 2013. Known for his pace, he broke into the Gunners' side in 2014-15 and has been a regular since, signing a new long-term contract in 2016 and winning all three of his Spanish international caps during the same year.

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 20.06.93
The first Bosnian to play for Arsenal – and only the fifth to represent his country in the Premier League – Kolasinac arrived at The Emirates in the summer on a free transfer having spent his entire professional career with Schalke 04. A Bosnian international who played for Germany at youth level, Kolasinac was named in the 2016-17 Bundesliga Team of the Season.

7 HENRIKH MKHITARYAN

POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 21.01.89
Alexis Sanchez' departure to Manchester United last month saw Mkhitaryan move in the other direction following an 18-month spell at Old Trafford where he netted 13 goals in 63 games including one in the Europa League final against Ajax. Armenia's all-time leading goalscorer was previously at Borussia Dortmund and won three Ukrainian titles with Shakhtar Donetsk.

10 JACK WILSHERE

POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 01.01.92
PFA Young Player of the Year in 2011 and a double BBC Match of the Day Goal of the Season winner, Wilshere has forced his way back into the reckoning for Arsenal having spent 2016-17 on loan with Bournemouth. Capped 34 times by England, although not since 2016, Wilshere was the 10th youngest Three Lions debutant when first appearing v Hungary at Wembley in 2010.

AARON RAMSEY

POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 26.12.90
Now in his 10th season at Arsenal, no current squad member has made more appearances for the Gunners than Ramsey who has also netted 50 goals for the club. In 2008 the Welsh international became the second youngest player to play in an FA Cup final (for Cardiff City) and has appeared in three Wembley FA Cup finals for Arsenal, scoring the winning goals in both 2014 and 2017.

ALEX IWOBI

POSITION:
MIDFIELDER/FORWARD
DATE OF BIRTH: 03.05.96
Lagos-born Iwobi moved to England at the age of four and first trained with Arsenal before he was a teenager, progressing through the ranks before making his debut in a League Cup game against Sheffield Wednesday in 2015. The Nigerian international was an unused substitute in the 2017 FA Cup final but started for Arsenal here at Wembley in the Community Shield against Chelsea.

GREAT GRANIT

Granit Xhaka has made 2,168 successful passes in the Premier League this season – the highest number in the Arsenal squad and the third highest in the whole division.

30 AINSLEY MAITLAND-NILES

POSITION: MIDFIELDER/FORWARD
DATE OF BIRTH: 29.08.97
England Under-21 international Maitland-Niles has already played as a winger, left-back and central midfielder during his fledgling Arsenal career with 2017-18 being his breakthrough campaign. The East Londoner – a product of Arsenal's Academy – has previously spent time on loan at Ipswich and was a member of England's Under-20 World Cup winning side last year.

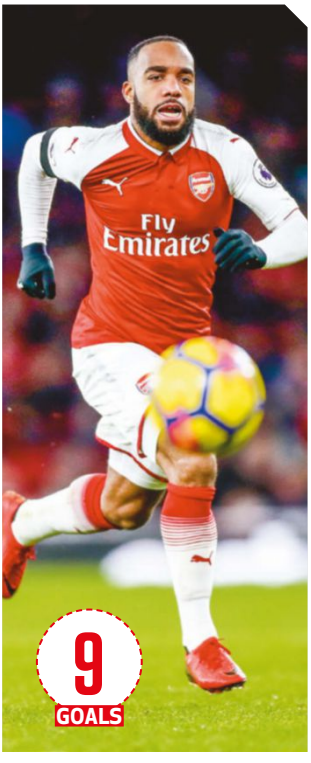
35 MOHAMED ELNENY

POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 11.07.92
One of 11 Egyptians to have played in the Premier League – Mido being the first for Tottemham in 2005 – Elneny was a 2017 Africa Cup of Nations runner-up with Egypt and also helped the Pharaohs to qualify for their first World Cup since 1990. He began his career with El Mokawloon ahead of a 2012 move to FC Basel and signed for Arsenal during the January 2016 transfer window.

14 PIERRE-EMERICK AUBAMEYANG

POSITION: FORWARD
DATE OF BIRTH: 18.06.89
African Footballer of the Year in 2015, Aubameyang was a goalscoring sensation for Borussia Dortmund, hitting 141 goals in 213 games for BVB before becoming Arsenal's club-record signing last month. A Gabon international who scored against Switzerland in the 2012 London Olympic Games, Aubameyang was also a prolific scorer for St Etienne during his two-and-a-half years there.

9 ALEXANDRE LACAZETTE



POSITION: FORWARD
DATE OF BIRTH: 28.05.91
Lyon-born Lacazette came through the Olympique Lyonnais Academy, making his first-team debut at the age of 19 before becoming one of French football's hottest goalscoring properties by netting 100 goals in 203 Ligue 1 games between 2010-11 and 2016-17. In July be became Arsenal's at-the-time club record signing and scored 94 seconds into his Premier League debut against Leicester.

23 DANNY WELBECK

POSITION: FORWARD
DATE OF BIRTH: 26.11.90
No stranger to scoring at Wembley, seven of Welbeck's 15 England goals have come at the national stadium although the most recent one was against Lithuania in March 2015. Signed from Manchester United two months earlier, injuries have restricted Welbeck's Arsenal career with the Mancunian striker having played more games in 2017-18 than he did in 2015-16 and 2016-17.

DOUBLE EDGE

George Hunt, who played for us between 1930-37, still remains in sixth place in our all-time goalscoring list with an incredible return of 138 goals in 198 league and cup appearances. Yet the Barnsley-born centre-forward who went on to play for England found it hard to find a club in his early days!

Local club Barnsley did offer to take him on but he was not impressed by the terms suggested and Sheffield United and Port Vale rejected him after trials before Chesterfield gave him a chance in September, 1929.

At Saltergate, Hunt made great strides as he evolved into a powerful front runner who was both tenacious and determined. A real crowd pleaser due to his workrate and willingness to go through the pain barrier to score, George's reputation soon reached the top clubs and former Spur Herbert Chapman, then the Arsenal manager, took a long look at the player.

George was living up to his nickname of the 'Chesterfield Tough' but Chapman wanted a bit more sophistication for his high-flying side while we were in Division Two where our boss Percy Smith knew that Hunt could develop his game.

After less than a year as a Spireite, Hunt was a Spurs player and quickly made his debut at Stoke. Once in the side on a regular basis, George scored consistently as we gained promotion in 1933 and he forced his way into the England side.

However, injuries were taking their toll and, after we were relegated in 1935, new manager Jack Tresadern decided to let him go and the Gunners finally got their man in October, 1937. He was there six months, scoring three in 18 outings as they won the title.

Triple Measure

Terry Dyson remains the only Spurs player to have scored a hat-trick against Arsenal. It came in August, 1961, when we won 4-3 at the Lane after Les Allen had opened the scoring. Mel Charles (2) and Alan Skirton replied for the Gunners. We retained the FA Cup at the end of the season.

MAIN ISSUE

The programme for Arsenal's visit in August, 1968, was a 16-page black-and-white production with light blue spot colour on the cover and two inside pages. It cost sixpence. The front featured the same aerial view of the stadium throughout the season.

There were three pages of fixtures and tables and three full pages of pictures. The club handbook was advertised for sale at two shillings with reference to a game the two clubs had played in Vienna in 1912 which the Gunners won 4-0.

Dave Mackay was featured over two pages as our former skipper headed to Derby. Cyril Knowles had spent the summer working in his fish and chip shop, Mike England had been playing cricket for his former club Blackburn and a number of Italian coaches had been watching our training at Cheshunt.

The Gunners were welcomed thus: "With Arsenal as our visitors, the campaign opens on an even higher note of tension and excitement than usual. We are plunged immediately into the big-match atmosphere."

Front Page

The year 1968 also saw the first heart transplant operation performed in Britain and the Apple boutique (pictured) opened by the Beatles in London. The Race Relations Act came into force and the breath test was introduced. The provision of free milk ended in secondary schools.

John Wayne's 'The Green Berets' was on at the cinema, 'Me Mammy' on TV and 'Mony Mony, by Tommy James and the Shondells was top of the UK charts.

LOCAL HERO

Peter Collins made his Spurs debut alongside fellow new boy Jimmy Pearce against Arsenal at the Lane in August, 1968.

It was our first game of the season and we lost 2-1 with Jimmy Greaves responding late on after a Phil Beal own goal and another on the hour from John Radford.

Five players with future connections to both clubs played that day – Pat Jennings, Jimmy Robertson, Terry Neill, George Graham and David Jenkins.

We subsequently lost by the only goal at Highbury in March as Arsenal finished fourth in the table with Spurs sixth. Bertie Mee's side also knocked us out of the League Cup on a 2-1 aggregate at the semi-final stage before going down 3-1 after extra time to Third Division Swindon Town at Wembley.

Collins, born in Chelmsford, was playing for his home town club in the Southern League when the powerful centre-half joined us in January, 1968. Up against legendary Wales international Mike England for a place, Pete never let the side down and would have walked into the first team at most other clubs. He was outstanding when we beat Aston Villa to lift the League Cup in 1971.

EVENING PLAYER DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMMES RETURN

Secure a place on one of Global Coaching's Evening Player Development Programmes, which return on Monday, February 19 and will be running for six weeks* at our venues in Essex, Hertfordshire and North London.

Our player development syllabus has been created by our Academy staff, focusing on every aspect of the game including goalscoring, defending, possession and domination.

Global Coaching's team of FA and UEFA-qualified coaches focus on grouping players within three specific session types to promote progression and individual development.

All training sessions concentrate on a specific element of the game and are based on using inspiration from our current first team and Academy to aid the development of all young players present on the courses.

Our Player Development Programmes are created within the boundaries of discipline that allow players to demonstrate flair and individualism in a professional and structured environment.

Young players will have the opportunity to develop technically within similar training sessions that the likes of Harry Kane, Harry Winks and Kyle Walker-Peters have experienced.

The Global Coaching team monitors every individual player to ensure they train with players of similar abilities and ages, with the overall aim to progress every player through the ability levels.

We also have our scouting network in operation at all venues.

*Friday night sessions will only have five weeks due to the last Friday falling on Easter Bank Holiday weekend.

Goalscorer Reo Griffiths on the charge against Southampton

SPOT ON GRIFFITHS EARNS YOUNGSTERS A POINT

Reo Griffiths' 17th goal of the season saw our youngsters peg Southampton back to 1-1, but a lack of clear chances prevented us from going on to take all three points in the Under-18 Premier League at Hotspur Way last Saturday.

Striker Griffiths converted a penalty three minutes into the second half to cancel out an overhead kick from Saints right-back Kayne Ramsay in a game watched by one of our all-time greats, 1961 Double winner Cliff Jones.

The rain made for tricky conditions with many players losing their footing in the first half. Our goalkeeper and captain Jonathan De Bie saved from Jonathan Afolabi and then palmed Sean Brennan's long-range strike over the bar, with Harry Hamblin nodding wide from the resulting corner as Southampton had the better chances early on, despite some slick midfield play from us.

The visitors took the lead from another corner on 19 minutes. De Bie was crowded out as he tried to come for Jake Vokins' delivery and the ball was touched on to Ramsay, who adjusted his body to fashion a shot over his head and inside the far post.

Paris Maghoma curled off target following a well-worked corner routine and Griffiths dragged a shot wide after being played in by Phoenix Patterson, but we weren't posing enough of a threat to Adam Parkes in the Saints goal, while at the other end De Bie tipped wide from Kornelius Hansen shortly before the interval.

Thankfully, we found an equaliser less than three minutes into the second half. Jneil Bennett picked out Griffiths on the six-yard line from the right and he was impeded from behind by Saints skipper Christoph Klarer, with the referee immediately awarding us a penalty. Up stepped Griffiths to level with a cool finish.

Tariq Hinds saw a good solo run come to nothing when his dangerous ball across from the right sailed wide of the far post, while Brooklyn Lyons-Foster got a vital touch to stop the speedy Hansen from going clean through on the counter for Southampton.

There was a let-off seven minutes from time when defender Maxwell Statham accidentally diverted a high ball into the box onto the crossbar, with De Bie staying composed to make a good save from Taymar Fleary on the follow-up.

The game settled into a pattern of both teams trading forward runs and then turning possession over in the latter stages, but we had two chances in stoppage time to nick it. First, Maghoma's shot was blocked before an opportunity opened up for Patterson with 94 minutes gone, but his fierce strike was straight at Parkes.

"I wouldn't say it was an even game – I thought we dominated," said coach Scott Parker. "In the first half we had the possession but never really created anything. We spoke about that at half-time.

"They came and set up with a shape that was quite defensive and looked to try to hit us on the counter, but although we had a lot of the ball, we never really caused them any problems. Obviously we tried to address that and I thought the lads in the second half were brilliant. Penetrating their defence a little bit more, creating opportunities – it was exactly what we called for and on another day maybe you could win the game.

"We had a couple of opportunities late on – but in the second half it felt like the way we want it to look and I was pleased with the boys overall. I thought Maxwell Statham did well, he was a little bit slow to get into the game but in the second period, him and Brook Lyons-Foster were very good.

"Southampton were always going to cause us some problems on the counter and there were a few lads out there who did well, but those two were pleasing."

Spurs: De Bie (c), Hinds, Reynolds, Bowden, Statham, Lyons-Foster, Richards (Clarke 80), P Maghoma, Griffiths, Patterson, Bennett (Markanday 70). Substitutes (not used): Kurylowicz, A Shashoua,

ACADEMY PROFILE:
MAXWELL STATHAM (CENTRE-BACK)

Born: September 6, 2000, in Southend.

Last school: Moulsham High School in Chelmsford.

When did you first start training for Spurs? With the Under-14s at the new Training Centre in Enfield.

Who do you like to watch in training in our first team and why? Jan Vertonghen. He's a fantastic defender but he's always thinking offensively. He's very good at playing out from the back and going forward while always staying solid in defence. His performance against Manchester United last week was very impressive and I think that summed up his season so far.

Which overseas league do you follow closest and which players from it do you most appreciate? Sergio Ramos in the Spanish league. The way he plays for Real Madrid is similar to Jan in the sense that not only is he good at defending but he's a good offensive player as well. I think he's one of the best defenders in the world, putting his body on the line with real enthusiasm and a will to win.

Any other sports men or women in your family? My dad, Brian, played for Spurs as a defender in the late-1980s. He made his debut when he was 18 and then moved on to Brentford where he played quite a few games.

First family holiday? The first one I can remember was to Dubai with my mum, dad and two older brothers, but I was only three or four so I don't recall much about it.

If you could meet anyone famous outside of football, who would it be and why? Odell Beckham Jr from the NFL. He's injured at the moment after breaking his ankle. Sadly I didn't get the chance to meet him when he came in to Spurs because I was only part-time at that point and wasn't at the Training Centre but I think his drive to be the best is really good. He always wants to better himself.

Which social media platform do you use most? Snapchat.

FIFA or Call of Duty? FIFA.

Golf or shopping? Shopping.

Smart or casual? Casual.

What do you do to chill out on a day off? Play FIFA or Fortnite on my PS4 or go out with my family.

If not a footballer what would you like to be? Maybe a tennis player or, if it was outside of sport, be a businessman of some sort. I enjoyed business studies at school.

Liverpool: Grabara, Masterson, Lewis, Johnston, Gallacher, Kane (c), Dhanda (Millar 72), Lallana, Ings, Solanke, Woodburn. Substitutes (not used): Kelleher, Camacho, Gomes, Williams.

ROLES STRIKES TO SINK STRONG REDS SIDE

Kazaiah Sterling beats Kamil Grabara but fails to find the back of the net

Jack Roles' fourth goal in as many games saw our Under-23s register back-to-back wins in the Premier League 2 for the first time this season at the expense of an experienced Liverpool side at Stevenage on Monday night.

It was an impressive performance against a Reds outfit featuring four senior internationals from their first team squad. Although one of those, England's Adam Lallana, was shown a straight red card shortly after the goal for reacting angrily to a challenge from midfielder George Marsh and, from there, we pressed home the advantage.

Liverpool had looked more dangerous early on and it needed a great intervention from centre-back Jon Dinzeyi to thwart Dominic Solanke, while fellow England international Danny Ings clipped wide after a good turn from Wales starlet Ben Woodburn. We had a couple of half-chances but were indebted to goalkeeper Luke O'Reilly - in his first competitive game for the club - for a superb double-stop on 19 minutes, first diving to his left to beat out Solanke's header and then getting in the way of Ings' drive on the follow-up.

We enjoyed a sustained spell in control after the 25-minute mark and two chances in 30 seconds went begging as advancing Liverpool stopper Kamil Grabara denied Kazaiah Sterling's effort on the break before Keanan Bennetts blazed over with the goal gaping. Three minutes before the break, Roles unleashed a venomous shot from 20 yards that coaxed a flying save out of Grabara.

Matchwinner Jack Roles in action against Liverpool

"I'M REALLY PLEASED WITH THE PERFORMANCE AND REALLY PLEASED WITH THE EFFORT AND APPLICATION"

We started the second half in the ascendancy and after Sterling was denied by Grabara and Roles fired over when well placed, a deserved opener finally came. Bennetts latched onto a loose ball to drive through the centre before laying it right to Roles, who finished from inside the box.

The Reds were left with an uphill task shortly after the hour mark when Marsh challenged Lallana and the Liverpool man reacted angrily, picking up a straight red card as a result. Liverpool were further depleted on 87 minutes when George Johnston clipped TJ Eyoma as he tried to break forward from defence and was shown a second yellow card before a consequent red.

With the visitors throwing everything forward in search of an equaliser, there were a handful of chances for us to break away and finish things off on the counter - the biggest of which saw Tracey sprung free just inside Liverpool's half, only for keeper Grabara to come racing way out and tackle him as the last man.

"I'm really pleased with the performance and really pleased with the effort and application that we showed," said coach Wayne Burnett. "This is why you play the game – we've played against some very good players with some internationals on show, and the players have done themselves complete credit. I felt we thoroughly deserved to win.

"We had a few chances in the first half and some more in the second, it was a little bit nervy at times because when you're only 1-0 up there's always an opportunity for them to get back into the game.

"I felt we should have scored one or two more goals but we'll take a win regardless because we need the points and I'm really pleased for everyone that we've got another win after last week against Manchester United."

GOAL MACHINE

Harry Kane is the first player to score 100 goals for Spurs in the Premier League - and the eighth Spur to reach the century-plus mark in league football. Here are all the stats around his achievement…

100 LEAGUE GOALS FOR SPURS

Harry becomes the ninth Spur to score 100 league goals. Jimmy Dimmock was the first, while Jimmy Greaves tops the chart on 220 league goals.

220	Jimmy Greaves	(321 apps, 1961-70)
176	Bobby Smith	(271 apps, 1955-64)
135	Cliff Jones	(318 apps, 1958-68)
125	George Hunt	(185 apps, 1930-37)
118	Martin Chivers	(278 apps, 1968-76)

103	Les Bennett	(272 apps, 1946-54)
100	Jimmy Dimmock	(400 apps, 1919-31)
100	Harry Kane	(138 apps, 2011-)

FASTEST TO 100 LEAGUE GOALS FOR SPURS

Harry scored his 100 league goals in 138 appearances, which makes him the third-fastest to 100 behind Bobby Smith and, of course, Jimmy Greaves, who got there in 113. Here's how long each player took to reach their century of league goals.

Jimmy Greaves	113 apps
Bobby Smith	134 apps
Harry Kane	138 apps
George Hunt	138 apps
Martin Chivers	216 apps
Cliff Jones	249 apps
Len Duquemin	229 apps
Les Bennett	254 apps
Jimmy Dimmock	397 apps

OUR TOP PREMIER LEAGUE GOALSCORERS

Harry overtook Teddy Sheringham's mark of 97 Premier League goals for us with his second against Everton on January 14.

WHAT THEY SAID...

Character, personality, professionalism, legend - just some of the words of praise for Harry Kane from his team-mates after the striker scored his 100th Premier League goal…

HUGO LLORIS

"I know Harry well and this isn't enough for him. His application, willingness and determination is what a player needs to achieve great things. He's got a great personality and showed it again for the second penalty against Liverpool. He deserves all the praise, all the credit. We know he has a big influence in our collective but we are a team - he needs us and we need him. The best thing is that he's come through the Academy and that makes the Spurs fans and Spurs community even more proud of Harry."

CHRISTIAN ERIKSEN

"What he's done for Spurs and what he's already achieved on a personal level is very impressive. It's not going to be often that a player that age scores so many goals that quickly."

HEUNG-MIN SON

"He's unbelievable. I always say he's a legend for Spurs. He continues to work very hard and he deserves more. All players and staff are so happy for him and it's no surprise that he's got to 100 so quickly because he's that good. I think we're all looking towards 200 goals now!"

BEN DAVIES

"A lot of people would do anything to play 100 games in the Premier League, let alone score 100 goals. It just shows Harry's character with what happened at Liverpool, nothing is going to stop him. It takes a lot of bravery to step back up and take that second penalty in front of the Kop. I felt nervous for him! What a player. He deserves every plaudit he's getting."

KIERAN TRIPPIER

"Harry is such a great example to the young lads because he's the first one out to train and the last one in, always practising and he's only 24. He's a top professional. I said to him on the pitch after the game at Anfield that he showed great character to step up and take the second penalty and score his 100th goal as well. That's what he's all about. Hopefully he'll beat Alan Shearer's record now."

Match Programme Sponsors: Glyn Hopkin, the Club's Vehicle Fleet provider celebrate their 25th Anniversary

This year sees the Glyn Hopkin car dealer group celebrate its 25th anniversary, having opened its first car dealership in January, 1993. Founded by local businessman Glyn Hopkin in the early 1990s, it started out as a single Nissan site in Romford, but now represents over 10 brands across 45 sites within the south east, and employs more than 800 staff. During the past 25 years, the business has enjoyed incredible growth and has always placed a strong emphasis on improving customer care and satisfaction, which is an integral part of the continued success of the group.

Glyn Hopkin (Chairman) and Fraser Cohen (Managing Director) are both lifelong Tottenham Hotspur fans and the business has a long-standing relationship with Spurs including being official vehicle suppliers to the club since 2006.

"After 25 years in business, Glyn Hopkin is still going strong, and 2018 will be packed with numerous celebrations to mark this exceptional achievement," says Fraser Cohen. "Our continued success is testament to more than 800 caring and hard-working staff, many of whom have been a significant part of the business since we opened the doors of our very first dealership in 1993."

Glyn Hopkin's success has been recognised in recent years with a string of prestigious awards. For the last seven years, it has been ranked in the Sunday Times Top Track 250 list of companies, rising rapidly to finish in 33rd place in 2017. On a local level, the business has been ranked number one in the 'Essex Limited' survey of leading businesses across the county for the last two years.

What began as a single-brand showroom in Romford has evolved into an award-winning, privately-owned car dealer group with many sites across London and the south east.

The group now represents over 10 exciting brands across more than 40 dealerships, including Nissan, GTR, Renault, Dacia, Alpine, Fiat, Abarth, Alfa Romeo, Suzuki, Honda, Mitsubishi and Jeep. Alpine is the most recent addition to Glyn Hopkin's brand portfolio, and its forthcoming site in St. Albans represents one of just seven dealerships for the marque in the UK.

Its brand-new model, the Alpine A110, has received critical acclaim across the board from the motoring press, lauded as "a new superstar" and "a watershed moment for performance cars". It's set to be one of the most exciting new cars on the road in the UK when the first examples arrive in spring.

With celebrations for its 25th anniversary kicking off in earnest, there's never been a more exciting time to visit your local Glyn Hopkin dealership and talk about upgrading your current vehicle. Special 25th anniversary offers are available across all brands in the group, during this significant, milestone year.

Visit GlynHopkin.com for more details and 25th anniversary special offers. Tel: 01708 772703

SPECIAL OCCASIONS CONTINUED

40th birthday to Neal Large, happy 40th birthday to Steven Brodie and happy birthday to Paul Sutton. In the Bobby Moore Lower, we wish a happy 60th birthday to Mick Thorne, happy 40th birthday to Gary Webster and happy 11th birthday to Luke Webster, happy 30th birthday to Garry Robertshaw, happy 18th birthday to Jack Handen and happy 10th birthday to Jude Claydon. We also welcome Eric DeRose who is attending his first Spurs match at Wembley. In Box 4011, we wish Daisy Cross a happy 12th birthday.

Help Noah's Ark build the children's hospice North London desperately needs

Tottenham Hotspur's First Team players have given an hour to build The Ark. Will you?

Donating just an hour of your salary will help Noah's Ark build North London's only children's hospice building and support more than 1,200 babies, children and young people with life-limiting or life-threatening conditions.

The Ark will complement our existing Hospice-at-Home services, providing 24-hour end-of-life, post-death and bereavement care, overnight stays and sensory, music and art rooms.

JERMAIN DEFOE

Jermain Defoe combined speed with accuracy to become one of the Premier League's finest goalscorers

With tremendous pace and the single-minded determination to find the back of the net all great goal-scorers need, Jermain Defoe was marked out as future star of the game even before making the breakthrough into senior football. While an Eastender, he was one of the most promising youngsters on the books of Charlton Athletic when West Ham United targeted him and he moved to Upton Park as a scholar in 1999.

Within a year he had scored on his senior debut but West Ham decided he needed to gain experience lower down the league ladder and in October, 2000, he was loaned to AFC Bournemouth. His impact was immediate and headline grabbing. The 18-year-old scored in 10 successive league games, a feat never achieved before or since, and finished the season with 19 goals.

Back at Upton Park, Defoe soon showed he had what it takes to score at the top level but at the end of 2002-03 West Ham were relegated. Fifteen goals in 22 games the following season showed that he was too good for First Division football and David Pleat moved to secure his signature, allowing Bobby Zamora to move in the opposite direction. In total Defoe had scored 41 goals in 105 appearances for the Hammers.

A goal on his debut against Portsmouth showed that we had secured another bright young English talent and within two months, Defoe had made his full England debut to follow his 23 Under-21 caps.

Although just 5ft 7ins Defoe is a physically strong player with instinctive positioning, ability to find space and an uncanny sense of knowing where the goal is even when he cannot see the target. A born predator, even the most imposing of defenders find it impossible to shackle him.

Playing right up against the last defender, Defoe's speed off the mark is a continual threat as he looks for the ball played through for him to run on to but he is not just a player who can finish off the chances created for him by others. Comfortable with the ball at his feet he creates chances for himself, running at defenders and committing them before getting in an effort that is usually on target. His stunning goal at White Hart Lane against Arsenal in our crazy 4-5 defeat in November, 2004, epitomised exactly that.

The Lane docufilm captures the 118-year story of White Hart Lane, our historic home that rose from humble beginnings to become a London landmark.

This one-hour film brings to life the exhilarating matchday experience and recalls those incredible moments in history, from the glory nights to the unique untold stories that shaped lives.

A clinical goalscorer, he is as adept at finishing with a perfectly placed pass into the net as a fiercely struck shot that beats the 'keeper for power.

During the 2007-08 season, Defoe found himself battling with Robbie Keane, Dimitar Berbatov and Darren Bent for a starting berth up front but, with no certainty of a regular place, he left us for Portsmouth in January, 2008.

> "HE WAS BACK AT THE LANE WITHIN A YEAR THOUGH WHEN HARRY REDKNAPP RE-SIGNED HIM"

Jermain remains a goal threat for Bournemouth in the Premier League

JERMAIN DEFOE STATS

Defoe, Jermain Colin (2004-14)
Position: Striker
Born: Beckton, East London, October 7, 1982
Signed from:
West Ham United February, 2004
Also played for: West Ham United, AFC Bournemouth, Portsmouth, Toronto, Sunderland.

First goal: February 7, 2004 v Portsmouth (Premier League) (H) won 4-3

100th goal: April 23, 2011 v West Bromwich Albion (Premier League) (H) drew 2-2

Final goal: January 11, 2014 v Crystal Palace (Premier League (H) won 2-0

Jermain is fifth in our all-time goalscorers list

He was back at the Lane within a year though when Harry Redknapp re-signed him and he enjoyed another five goal-laden years with us, including scoring 24 times in his first full season back in 2009-10. That, of course, featured his stunning five-goal haul against Wigan Athletic, while he joined our '100 Club' with a goal in our 2-2 against West Brom in April, 2011.

Defoe was on the move again in February, 2014, leaving us once and for all to join Toronto FC in the MLS and is now plying his trade in the Premier League with Bournemouth, via a spell in the north-east with Sunderland. His 143 goals during his 10-year spell as a Spur leaves him fifth in our all-time goalscorers list, while he is also our highest-ever scorer in European competition.

ERIK INSPIRING TOTTENHAM RESIDENTS TO LEAD A HEALTHIER LIFE

Erik Lamela recently visited 'Shape Up With Spurs', a 10-week exercise and nutrition programme designed to help local people who are above a healthy weight get fit, lose weight and feel great.

The Argentine international joined participants in a circuits session and an interactive discussion looking at the importance of healthy eating and nutrition.

'Shape Up With Spurs' is one of Tottenham Hotspur Foundation's health and wellbeing programmes designed to improve the physical and mental health of people living in the local area. The programmes are designed to target hard to reach audiences in a range of preventative, rehabilitation and health improvement initiatives.

Erik said: "It has been brilliant to see how the club's Foundation is supporting local people to help improve their health and wellbeing. As a professional footballer, keeping fit and healthy is an everyday part of my life, but it's not easy for everyone. I am pleased that I got the opportunity to see first-hand the work that the club is doing in the local area to help people improve their physical and mental health."

Jackie Dublin, local resident and 'Shape Up With Spurs' participant, said: "Before I started the programme, I suffered with high cholesterol and was overweight. The sessions have helped me to lose weight, maintain a healthier diet and meet people from my local community. I have seen a great improvement in my health and I am more determined than ever to continue my journey to be a healthier and fitter individual."

YOUR SHOUT

This is the place for you, our supporters, to share your greetings, wishes, messages and photos through our matchday programme. If you want something to be included, please email us at programme@tottenhamhotspur.com and we will do our best to feature it.

OBITUARIES

We were sorry to hear of the passing of the following Spurs supporters:

IAN JOHN PATERNOSTER, who passed away on January 10 aged 68. A lifelong supporter and One Hotspur bronze member, he followed the club throughout his illness and was always keen to find out our results. He is sadly missed by his wife Sylvie, children and grandchildren, family and his friends, some of whom are here today.

ALAN WILLIMOTT, a lifelong supporter who was born and raised in Tottenham, sadly passed away aged 51 on December 5.

RORY MACDONALD, a lifelong, loyal Spurs supporter who passed away peacefully on January 22, aged 62, leaving his daughter and twin grandsons to carry the Tottenham torch.

HARRY RICE, who was killed in a road traffic accident on January 26, at the age of 17. A promising amateur footballer, he leaves behind parents Ian and Nicola and sister Emily and will be sadly missed by his family and friends.

ROBIN (BOB) McMURRAY, who passed away after illness on January 25, aged 41. The lifelong Spurs supporter, who attended our game against Bournemouth earlier this season in our Spurs Wishes executive box, will be sadly missed by wife Julia, sons Oliver and Finn and all his family and friends.

We would like to extend our condolences to their families and friends at this sad time.

GLOBAL SPURS

Our supporters come from far and wide across the globe and are a well-travelled bunch – and we've got the photos to prove it! If you've had your photo taken proudly showing your colours abroad, then we want to see it. Send us your photos from around the world to programme@tottenhamhotspur.com

2017-18 STAT PACK

Premier League

TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR v ARSENAL

MATCH FACTS

Spurs have lost just one of their last seven Premier League games against Arsenal (W2 D4), although that defeat came earlier this season, losing 2-0 at the Emirates.

MATCH FACTS

Arsenal are aiming to win both home and away against their north London rivals in the Premier League for just the fourth time in the same season.

MOUSSA SISSOKO

Our French midfielder will make his 50th Premier League appearance for us if he features against Arsenal today. The former Newcastle man has scored once in the division so far, while making 68 appearances in all competitions prior to Wednesday night's FA Cup tie.

VICTOR WANYAMA

Before our game against Newport County on Wednesday, Victor Wanyama had made 299 club appearances in his career. The Kenyan international has played 57 times for us as well as Southampton (97), Celtic (91) and Beerschot (54).

FA Cup success in 1982

WEMBLEY MEMORIES

Each matchday, Andy Greeves speaks to a former Spurs player about their memories of Wembley Stadium during their career. This afternoon, Micky Hazard reflects on the realisation of a boyhood dream that came with our FA Cup Final triumph at the 'Home of Football' back in 1982

Two years after making his professional debut for us at the age of 19, Micky Hazard was included in our squad for the 100th FA Cup Final against Manchester City here at Wembley Stadium on May 9, 1981.

In an era when teams could only name one substitute, the Sunderland-born midfielder didn't make it onto our final list of 12 players for the original game nor the replay some five days later. Despite the disappointment of not playing, Hazard looks back on a "momentous occasion" in his career with only happy memories.

"When I was growing up, I never really dreamt of winning the title…it was the FA Cup that most captured my imagination," smiles Micky, who made 170 competitive appearances and scored 25 times during two spells with us from 1980 to 1985 and 1993 to 1995. "Getting to an FA Cup Final was a boyhood dream for me and in 1981, I went someway to fulfilling that dream having been including in Keith Burkinshaw's squad for the final.

"I can remember arriving at Wembley for the first time. It was a very proud moment walking out onto that famous pitch in the club suit. Lots of my friends and family were there too, which added to this momentous occasion

"The way the original game and replay panned out was incredible. We struggled to a 1-1 draw in the first match and Ricky Villa was substituted of course. The question was, ‘will he or won’t he play in the replay?’ I wasn’t clever enough in those days to think ‘I hope he won’t play, because I might have a chance of getting into the team’! I never gave it a thought. All I wanted was for us to win the FA Cup.

“For Ricky to go on and get the winner in the replay (which we won 3-2) after what had happened on the Saturday… well that added to the belief I always had about the FA Cup Final being this magical experience. I’ve seen that goal a million times since and every time I watch it back, I still find myself shouting ‘pass it Ricky, pass it!’”

After our triumph against City, we returned to Wembley Stadium a few months later to take part in the FA Charity Shield against Aston Villa. Hazard meanwhile got to play at the ‘Home of Football’ for the first time on March 13, 1982, in our 3-1 extra-time defeat to Liverpool in the League Cup Final.

“I thought we were so unlucky not to win that game,” laments Micky, who wore our number five shirt on the day. “I was substituted after about 70 minutes of that match and at that stage, we were 1-0 up, thanks to an early goal from Steve Archibald. With just a few minutes remaining, I can remember Steve going through one-on-one with Liverpool goalkeeper Bruce Grobbelaar. I was off the bench ready to celebrate, only for the ball to go narrowly wide. Having not looked likely to score all game, Liverpool went down the other end and equalised.

“Suddenly, it was 1-1 and extra-time and I felt helpless sat on the bench. Fatigue started to set in during the extra period and it was horrible to watch a game dwindle away from us that we should have won. I think it was the first time Spurs had ever lost a Wembley cup final too, which made it even worse.”

Luckily for Micky and his teammates, we returned to Wembley just over two months after our League Cup Final disappointment to take on Queens Park Rangers in the FA Cup Final of May 22, 1982. With the on-going Falklands Conflict, our Argentinian international Ossie Ardiles – who had returned to his homeland after our semi-final victory over Leicester City to help his country prepare for the 1982 World Cup – didn’t return to the Lane that season. His compatriot Villa meanwhile withdrew from Keith Burkinshaw’s team on the eve of the final.

“With Ricky having pulled out, it meant I had to take up a totally different role to the one I had been preparing for in the entire week leading up to the final,” recalls Hazard. “Even though I still played in central midfield, it was a much more advanced role than the one I had been getting ready for. Graham Roberts had to come out of the backline and into the position I was going to be operating in.

“We played really well in the first game against QPR and I honestly felt we could have won by five or six.

Their goalkeeper (Peter Hucker) was pulling off top saves left, right and centre. He made two great saves from me alone, which was gutting as I could have had my first cup final goal!"

The final went to extra-time after a goalless 90 minutes. Glenn Hoddle's strike 20 minutes into the added period looked to have landed us the trophy for a second successive year but Terry Fenwick's late equaliser for Rangers forced a replay.

"After a good performance in the first game, we really didn't play well in the second match," reflects Micky. "Luckily, we ended up winning. Robbo went on a great run before being brought down for a penalty and Glenn converted it.

"The best part of the whole occasion was seeing what my success meant to my parents. That will live with me forever. Strangely, I can't remember anything about going up the steps to collect my medal. It was like an out of body experience. You wait all your life to achieve that moment of going up to collect the medal but for whatever reason it passes you by on the day."

After experiencing FA Cup glory with us, Micky played here once again in our 1-0 defeat to Liverpool in the 1982 FA Charity Shield. His other major success as a Spurs player meanwhile came in 1984, as he started both legs of our UEFA Cup Final against Anderlecht, that eventually saw us triumph on penalties.

The midfielder moved across London to sign for Chelsea in 1985 and was named on the Blues' bench for their Full Members' Cup Final against Manchester City at Wembley a year later. After a brief spell with Portsmouth in 1990, he joined Swindon Town where he featured in another final at the 'Venue of Legends', as the Robins beat Leicester City 4-3 in the First Division play-off final of May 31, 1993.

"I played pretty much every match for the first half of that season, knowing I needed a cartilage operation," recalls Micky. "I eventually went into hospital to have the surgery and after that, I did everything in my power to make sure I was fit and playing again before the end of the season.

"I ended up being a substitute in the two play-off semi-final matches as well as the final. I came on in the final and although it was disappointing not to start, that's football and injuries happen. It was about the team and us getting promoted. It was a lovely club, Swindon, and I got to play for two of my idols there in Ossie and then Glenn there. It was great to play a part in getting the club promoted to the Premier League for the first time."

Re-signing for us from Swindon in November, 1993, Hazard finished his playing career in N17 prior to him hanging up his boots in April, 1995. A Spurs fan through and through, Micky's connections with the club continue to this day as a matchday host – a role that has seen him become a Wembley Stadium regular in 2017-18.

"There have been some fantastic occasions at Wembley this season and the Real Madrid match springs to mind straight away," he said. "The joy and excitement I felt that night was up there with highs from my own career and a night that will live long in the club's history."
